

Arben Zharku – Biography

Born in Kacanik, Kosovo.

Arben Zharku is an actor and producer from Kosovo. He is one of the founders and director of SKENA UP International Students Film and Theatre Festival in Prishtina. He graduated Acting at the Faculty of Arts Prishtina University in 2004 and since 2009 he is an EAVE graduate. Alongside his commitment at SKENA UP, since 2003 Arben has also been working as a Manager at the Multimedia Centre in Prishtina, which has the aim to develop contemporary, children's theatre and film.

He has performed in different theater performances as well in different films.

In 2011 he won the Best Producer in Abu Dhabi Film Festival.

He is voting member of the European Film Academy.

Since April 2011, he is President of the Board in Kosovo Cinematographic Center, a public film foundation in Kosovo.